

- Q Pointed him out? A. Pointed him out as Mr. Stevens. He owns the biggest house here, you know. You know, Stevens don't do anything. It is human nature to look upon the fellow that sort of has the bank account, so to speak. I have never been able to get it. But you understand those things.
- Q Do you ordinarily fish on the beach near Brown Avenue?
- A As a rule, yes.
- Q Is it your recollection that about this time in 1922 you fished about there? A. I absolutely did, yes, sir, right in front of Brown Avenue.
- Q Do you remember seeing Mr. McGonigal during that night?
- A No, I would not say that. He is kind of mixed up now about that, whether it was Friday or Thursday.
- Q After you were examined by Simpson--- A. After I was examined by Simpson at Toms River and I had given my sworn statement where I erred on the day, having stated Friday instead of Thursday, in talking it over I found that I had erred on the day. I desired his lieutenant to tell him that I wished it changed to Thursday instead of Friday.
- Q This was Underwood you talked with? A. I would not like to say who it was. It was one of the detectives. It was his next, his big man, I couldn't say, a fine-looking,
